NOMINATION IS HELD UP

Cortelyou Must Get Off National Committee Before Taking Treasury Portfolio.

Washington, Jan. 8.—At the request of Senators Teller and Daniels, the senate committee on finance today postponed for one week action on the nomination of Postmaster General Cortelyou to be secretary of the treasury. In making his request that action on the Cortelyou nomination be postponed for a week, Senator Teller said that the finance committee had nothing but newspaper statements to show that the postmaster general had resigned the management of the Republican national committee. He thought that Mr. Cortelyou should communicate the fact that he had severed his connection, which, if continued, would make him objectionable to many senators for the position of secretary of the treasury. Republican members assented to the suggestion made by Senator Teller. It was said on the floor of the senate today that a petition would be circulated among members of the Republican national committee, asking the members to act on Mr. Cortelyou's resignation as chairman, and to elect a successor. This plan is supported by opponents to the action of Mr. Cortelyou in designating Vice Chairman New of Indiana to serve as chairman.
